POLITIK

For countries to develop or even survive they need to be able to trade fairly. At the Moment poorer countries are strangled by ridiculous international trade laws and ruthless Western businesses, keeping millions trapped in poverty and widening the gap between Rich and poor

There is no reason why this issue should not be addressed. You can find out more, and join The campaign for fairer trade, by going to:

www.marketrade-fair.com

Some businesses already produce 'fair trade' products, and supporting these can only help Put more pressure on less conscious companies to re-think their standards.
